

Medication Awareness

Who is this course aimed at?

To understand Medication risks

Course Aims

To refresh awareness of types of medication, how they are controlled and used

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course you will have been updated on the following:

- How drugs are defined in medical practice
- The importance of competency
- Legislation underpinning medication administration
- The common types and forms of medication
- The different routes of administering medication
- Drugs which are controlled by law
- How medication passes through the body
- How to correctly store controlled drugs
- That medication can have side effects
- The ways that drugs can interact with other factors
- That some people can find it difficult to take medication
- Your responsibilities and the responsibilities of others in your workplace regarding medication administration

Course available as

E-Learning

Course Length: 30 Mins

Contact Us

For more information, or to book any of our courses, please contact us on 01706 375578